Re: Peschmann v. Blogtalkradio, Inc., et al. 1:15-cv-09504-PGG-JCF

Dear Mr. Rosen,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing you today to inform you that I received a notice from a litigation adjuster named Mandy DiOrio from Nationwide—Depositors Insurance Company on behalf of Defendant Stephen Quayle.

It seemed a little odd to me for several reasons.

For starters, there was no proposed settlement offer letter included with it or any reference to you or to your office, yet according to Ms. DiOrio I am supposed to direct future correspondence to her office.

Is Ms DiOrio working with you and your office in some capacity on behalf of Defendant Stephen Quayle now?

Please advise and clarify. It is my understanding that all parties should be notified regarding developments with this action.

Attached is a true and accurate copy of the notice with the envelope I received. As I've noted before, cross border mail is unpredictable. Sometimes it is fast, sometimes it is slow, so please ship documents if time is of the essence. In such cases, please give the courier my landline. It's 905-891-0580 and provide me with a tracking # so I may keep an eye out that it's not held up at the border in customs. Thanks.

Lastly, isn't it proper that you/we notify our Honorable Judge Gardephe regarding the Russia investigations, your clients, and some of the individuals in their "circle of trust" in the alternative media (... John Does 1-20)?

I'm asking because Defendant Douglas Hagmann confirmed it publicly.

Frankly, I figured it was only a matter of time as reports concerning some of the post-presidential election investigations started hitting the public domain.

Indeed. It appears most people were surprised to learn about the reach, impact and magnitude of the alternative media. Not me as my lawsuit I initially filed in November 2015 verifies. See Amended Complaint for e.g. at 2, 3, 61, 100, 110, 117, 119, 128-129, 227-242. As such, you have my full and unwavering consent that our Judge be notified of these developments.

Looking forward to hearing back from you.

Good day Counsel.

Regards,

/s/Marinka Peschmann

Really? I'm not so sure.

Follow the money ... circle of trust etc? I guess time will tell one way or the other.

What I do know and can already verify is I wasn't defamed and had violence incited against me because I was wrong.

You already know about a lot of the evidence which I will be submitting. Push play.

Good day Counsel.
